

BURÇAK GULEN MORHAYIM (M.A.)

In 1990, she completed her high school education in Uskudar American Academy for Girls.

In 1994, she has attained her bachelor degree in Bosphorus University Sociology Department.

Between the years 1994-2002, she has worked in corporate marketing departments of various banks and multinational companies.

In 2002, she has returned to academic life to get her M.A.

In 2005, she has attained her M.A. in Marmara University Educational Management and Audit (her dissertation: The Evaluation of the Student Affinity to the Democratic School: A Form of Alternative School).

She participated in various projects in connection with Marmara University.

She specialized in alternative and democratic education.

In 2005 she, along with her 2 teammates, have conducted the first international mass act on alternative education in Turkey: Organisation of 1st International Alternative Education Symposium. She was Organization Committee Member.

In 2007, she co-authored the book: The Coaching Skills of School Managers in the 21st Century.

In 2008, she co-edited the book: 1st International Alternative Education Symposium.

In 2009, she became Democratic Schools Country Representative and Coordinator for Educational Cities Project in Turkey.

In 2009, she completed her training on P.Y.P. in U.S.A.

The same year she joined Personalife team to consult schools on PYP, Inquiry-Based Learning and Learning Styles.

She started to teach/train teachers on subjects such as curriculum, inquiry, PYP, UdB ad True Colors. She has worked in over 50 schools with many teachers as a trainer and also, as a consultant on such-mentioned subjects. She has mediated the implementation of PYP in many schools.

Since 2009, she has worked in over 60 companies as a trainer and a consultant on team management, self-awareness, stress management, assertiveness, communication, leadership, conflict management.

In 2016-2017 she has taught “Communication” class in FMV Işık University as a Co-Instructor.

Since 2017, she has been working as an Instructor in Bosphorus University, giving the “Introduction to IPC” Class.

This year, Burçak founded her own company to work with companies and schools.

She is married and has a teenage daughter.

She is fluent in English and a learner in Spanish.