

Assistant Professorship Position(s) in the Department of Tourism Administration, Bogazici University, Istanbul, Turkey

The Department of Tourism Administration at Boğaziçi University seeks candidates for assistant professorship in one of the priority areas defined below, which is expected to be filled in Fall 2022 and later.

Boğaziçi University

Boğaziçi University is a public university in Istanbul, Turkey, which was established in 1863. The Department of Tourism Administration, which dates back to 1976, offers a four-year undergraduate program in "Tourism Management" and a master's degree in "Sustainable Tourism Management." For more information: <http://www.boun.edu.tr/en-US/Index> ; <https://tourism.boun.edu.tr/en>

Mission of the Department of Tourism Administration

The mission of the Dpt. of Tourism Administration is to generate knowledge on tourism and related fields and to educate individuals who aim to excel in tourism practice and to contribute to the development of sustainable tourism both at the national and international level. In order to achieve this mission, the Department undertakes its research and education programs in accordance with the scientific and educational excellence standards of Boğaziçi University and the highest ethical values. In line with these goals, the Department aims to bring together the very best academicians, experts, and students in a rewarding environment.

Priority Area 1: Information Technologies in Travel and Tourism

Job description

Boğaziçi University, Dpt. of Tourism Administration invites applications for the position of Assistant Professor in the area of Travel and Tourism, with a special focus on digitalization and technology. Candidates with specific publications and/or teaching experience on the use of digitalization and technology in travel and tourism will be preferred.

Role of the position

The position entails carrying out teaching at the graduate and undergraduate level in the fields of information systems, data analytics, smart destinations, and/or technological developments in hospitality and tourism, as well as research in the field of travel and tourism and cooperation with other faculty members on projects concerning tourism, destination development, and hospitality and travel management. The appointed candidate will also be expected to share the administrative responsibilities of the Department, including serving as academic advisor to students, participating in different committees and coordinating programs.

Priority Area 2: Event Management

Job description

Boğaziçi University, Dpt. of Tourism Administration invites applications for the position of Assistant Professor in the area of Tourism, with a special focus on event management. Candidates with specific publications and/or teaching experience on conventions and special events in hospitality and tourism will be preferred.

Role of the position

The position entails carrying out teaching at the graduate and undergraduate level in the fields of event planning and design, event and entertainment technology, MICE industry, virtual events as well as research in the field of hospitality and tourism, and cooperation with other faculty members on projects concerning tourism, destination development, and hospitality and travel management. The appointed candidate will also be expected to share the administrative responsibilities of the Department, including serving as academic advisor to students, participating in different committees and coordinating programs.

Priority Area 3: Hospitality Management

Job description

Boğazici University, Dpt. of Tourism Administration invites applications for the position of Assistant Professor in the area of Tourism, with a special focus on hospitality management. Candidates with specific publications and/or teaching experience in the management of hotel and restaurant operations in hospitality and tourism will be preferred.

Role of the position

The position entails carrying out teaching at the graduate and undergraduate level in the fields of lodging management, F&B operations in hotels and restaurants, hospitality technologies as well as research in the field of travel and tourism and cooperation with other faculty members on projects concerning tourism, destination development, and hospitality and travel management. The appointed candidate will also be expected to share the administrative responsibilities of the Department, including serving as academic advisor to students, participating in different committees and coordinating programs.

Qualifications

Basic requirements

- Having a PhD in tourism management or a related field, or being close to its completion (at the time of the appointment the PhD should have been completed).
- Having at least one publication in a SSCI, AHCI, or SCI-E indexed journal.
- The capability of teaching in English (it should be demonstrated through one of Boğazici University's set criteria for academic instructors)
- Being local and available to teach on ground and online during both academic semesters

Preferred qualifications

- Proven track of research and research potential at the international level
- International academic experience, preferably during the PhD or through a post-doc appointment
- Teaching experience at the undergraduate level
- Commitment to the mission of the Department and the University

Application procedure

Apply by sending an email to applytrm@boun.edu.tr by January 31, 2022, including the following:

- Cover letter
 - Academic CV containing publications and research/teaching experience
 - Teaching evaluations (if applicable)
 - Publications (articles and/or book chapters)
 - Names and contact details of three referees.
-
- Please indicate your area of expertise in relation to the above-specified priority areas in the subject line of your email.
 - You will receive a notification upon the receipt of your application.
 - All candidates will be notified on the outcome of their application within a month from the closure of the application period. Some candidatures may be filed for future available positions.
 - Shortlisted candidates will be requested to provide additional information.